How does the Foodbank work? work

DONATIONS ARE MADE: The Arkansas Foodbank secures donations from the food and grocery industries, government agencies, individuals and other organizations.

FOOD IS STORED: The food that is donated or purchased is then stored in our 73,000 square foot warehouse in Little Rock.

FOOD IS DISTRIBUTED: The Arkansas Foodbank arranges pick-ups and deliveries to its 450-partner agencies.

FOOD REACHES THOSE IN NEED: Donations are provided to people in need at food pantries, soup kitchens, youth programs, senior centers, schools and emergency shelters.

Who is at risk for hunger? Arkansas

- 17.2% of Arkansans do not know where their next meal is coming from. (2nd worst in the nation)
- 264,000 people face food insecurity in the AF 33-county service area.
- One in Four children (3rd worst in nation) are at risk for hunger in Arkansas.

Whom does the Foodbank serve? who

- We assist people in 33 counties across central and southern Arkansas. Of the 280,000 clients we serve; 33% are children under age 18 and 11% are seniors over age 60.
- We distribute enough food for 60,500 meals a day and 742,000 visits a year.
- 77% of the food pantries we serve are faith-based.
